VETERANS' CORPS

To Be Organized by Augustus C. Tyler, Camp, S. of V.

The special meeting of Augustus C. Tyler camp, No. 8, United Spanish War Veterans, in the old armory on Center street Sunday afternoon, brought out 15 comrades and a most enthusiastic meeting resulted. The various committees on arrangements for the carnival reported that everything was moving along smoothly. Various organizations have reported their willingness to assist the veterans in any way possible. It has been decided to call the opening night Grand Army night, the second one Military night, the third Cyclists' night, and the fourth and last, the grand wind-up, Firemen's night.

The proposition to organize a Veterans corps as a sort of auxiliary to Company L, First regiment, C. N. G., was brought up and met with favor. The corps will be open to all veterans of the Spanish war, any who have ever served in the national guard of the state and all past members of Companies B and L, the present military organization of the city. Efforts toward organization will be perfected by Company L men and the comrades of A. C. Tyler camp at an early date, with all others eligible and interested in the movement.

Plans for Governor's Ball.

Another Case of Scarlet Fever.

The latest scarlet fever case reported to City Health Officer Dr. W. P. S. Keating is that of Miss Alice Baker, living at 32 Chestnut street. The case is a mild one, but the patient has a bad case of tonsillitis. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Stiles of Windham road has the scarlet fever in a mild form. Both houses are quarantined. Health Officer Keating stated Saturday afternoon that at present there are not more than half a dozen cases in the city under quarantine.

Y. M. C. A. MEN'S MEETING.

Louis J. Bernhardt Tells the Story of His Life and Conversion.

The meeting for men Sunday afternoon at the Bijou theater was largely attended. Louis J. Bernhardt held his audience with a graphic story of his life. He has only been out of state prison about three years and the account of his life was like a tale in one of the big yellow daddies. He told of being down and out and chancing to be near a mission and hearing the singing one Sunday night. He went in. This started him on a new career and he has since been busy doing mission work. He was the son of a wealthy southern man and had squandered a fortune—about $300,000—in gambling and went from bad to worse until he at last was sentenced to a long term in state prison for being mixed up in crooked transactions that were the re-

ARRESTED IN FALL RIVER.

Manual Maczewga Given Fine and Jail Sentence for Larceny of $49.

Manual Maczewga, a Polish young man, who was taken in Fall River, Mass., Friday, by Captain Richmond, was arraigned in police court Saturday morning on the charge of the larceny of $49 from Mary Niemiec of this city, February 27. The warrant was not made out until March 4, when the accused left town. Captain Richmond had some little trouble in locating the fellow in Fall River, but with the assistance of Inspector Shea of that city finally located his man. When arraigned the prisoner said that he was either 20 or 21 years of age and at last said he was the latter age. Judge Arnold appointed Probation Officer W. C. Lyman guardian ad litem because of the doubt in the prisoner's mind as to his exact age. The accused entered a plea of not guilty. Officer Lyman said that the woman gave Maczewga the $49 to get some beer and when he came back with it she was tendered the money, but she did not take it, but had him go out a couple of more times for a growler, and on the last occasion he kept the change and went to Fall River. As witnesses needed for the trial were not present the case was continued until 1:30 p. m., and the charge changed to embezzlement.

In the afternoon there was a big crowd from the Polish settlement of the city. John Smirocki was interpreter. The prisoner was put to plea on the embezzlement charge and pleaded guilty. Mrs. Niemiec had been visiting a woman at another house to collect $20, which with what she had, made $49, and she returned with it under her arm to her boarding house, No. 55 Stone row. When she arrived there were three men there who saw the money and she went into her bedroom and stooped down to put it in her stocking, when two of the men entered and seized her. One held her hand, while the prisoner took the money. She screamed and the men left the house. She later made a complaint to the police and had not recovered the money. Maczewga testified that she had handed him the money to buy whiskey and when the first supply was gone she ordered him to get more. The third time he went out, friends told him to keep the money and not be a fool. Witness said that he blew the balance of the $49 in at a saloon and when he was arrested in Fall River Friday evening he was working to raise the amount so as to return it to the woman and if the court would let him go he would go to work here and pay the money back. The court found the evidence against him so weighty that he was fined $50 and costs and sentenced to three months in jail. Maczewga will be given a ride to Brooklyn this morning.

Underwent Surgical Operation.

The Truth About the Subconscious Mind.

There have been so many things written about the subconscious mind, its use and power, that the student must wander in a maze of uncertainty and confusion unless he can be turned back into the straight path of research. It is time for higher education on this subject, and today there are those who know more clearly the great truths which the earlier psychologists only dimly foreshadowed. It is the task of the twentieth century mystic to offer a clearer interpretation than has hitherto been given.

Man is the highest point of localized atoms, and his environment becomes a well marked center of activity within the larger universal atomic world mind.

Man's physical body is only a combination of atoms tuned to move at a slower vibratory rate; the ether substance is simply a shell composed of separate points of intelligence.

Mind is always clothed in body and the central undifferentiated atomic stream of intelligence within us is called our spirit, while the outer crusts of this differentiated substance are called body, but they are really one substance.

There must always be the outside and inside action of every law, so there is no such thing as a body and a spirit—they are only the outside and inside action of universal mind.—Julia Seton Sears, M.D., in Aspe-Nauticus.
